

Nearby

The medieval town of Cingoli is just ten minutes' drive away. It boasts one of the most beautiful squares and the Comune building forms a dramatic nighttime backdrop. Cingoli has shops, supermarkets, small hospital and during the summer months hosts a vibrant entertainment programme. Macerata a medieval university town holds annually open-air opera and we have seen some very fine performances the acoustics are excellent. Blue flag beaches are 33kms drive away.

Cingoli the Comune building and main square

Cingoli main square and nearby roman bridge

Loreto and Macerata open air opera

We are in the midst of the Verdicchio wine producing area and yes it does snow!

Local beaches

